Gorgeous young steer with a lacey grulla face, freckles galore and excellent horn growth and backward sweep. With the horn and twist in his pedigree along with his unique color and markings, this will be an excellent trophy steer. He's shaping up to be a long, tall boy, very personable and loves to have his head scratched. Oh how I love to watch these exhibition steers develop but we can't keep them all dammit. This will be a jaw-dropper of
